

THAT GOD MAY BE GLORIFIED
First United Church of Gridley
Waiver of Liability

The First United Church of Gridley has been designed and built to serve not only its congregation but also the surrounding communities.

Although the congregation welcomes and even encourages the facilities to be utilized by non-members, the congregation cannot accept liability risk beyond what is covered by existing insurance policies.

To enable building usage beyond its members, this waiver of liability must be signed by the individual or group representative requesting to access the facilities.

By signing this document, First United Church of Gridley and its membership will be held harmless in the case of accident or injury during the specific event requested. In addition, signing this document indicates accident or injury insurance coverage is enforce for the group and /or individual. Under no circumstances shall First United Church of Gridley be responsible or liable for any loss, damage or costs to the person or persons utilizing the church facilities.
